

Allfarm Peck Me Up feed mixes - poultry feed supplements with protein, vitamins & energy.

Allfarm Peck Me Up feed mixes are the perfect powder supplements for boosting home rations. They contain a full range of supplements of vitamins, amino acids, whole protein, and energy, with kelp added to boost the flavour. They can be used to supplement standard poultry rations when birds are moulting, starting to lay, or are laying poorly. The Layer Feed Mix is also formulated to enhance yolk colour.

Which should you use?

- Allfarm Peck Me Up Feed Mix is recommended as a dietary supplement for poultry of all ages. It may be used at double-strength during high-stress times or moulting, when extra protein, vitamins and energy are essential for bird maintenance.
- Allfarm Peck Me Up PLUS Layer Feed Mix is recommended for birds during lay. It contains all the ingredients of Peck Me Up Feed Mix, with added carophylls to enhance yolk colour.

Ingredients:

Allfarm Peck Me Up Feed Mix: protein meals (80%), hydrolysed plant protein amino acids and amino acid supplements (6%), energetic carrier (3%), kelp (0.5%), blend of vitamins, salt, trace elements, crude fats, alginates and vegetable oils (5%), bulking and flow agents (balance).

Allfarm Peck Me Up PLUS Layer Feed Mix: as for Peck Me Up Feed Mix, but also contains carophyll yellow (0.04%) and carophyll red (0.08%).

Directions:

- May be used daily for optimum results.
- During rearing or lay: mix 1 kg into 40 kg of feed.
- During high-stress times when extra protein, vitamins and energy are essential for bird maintenance: mix 1 kg into 20 kg of feed.
- During moulting season when standard rations could be inadequate: mix 1 kg into 20 kg of feed.
